VOL. 26,—NO. 8132. PORTLAND, OREGON, FRIDAY, JUNE 4, 1886. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

A LIBERAL OFFER

Five Thousand Dollars to any Charitable Institution,

'That Cannot be Done as It is Stated

Rochester N. Y. Union and Advertiser.

Friends of Ex-President Arthur are much disquieted.

Of course he is not going to die! He is in the hands of a very particular physician.

His doctor does not call it Bright's disease! No, it is stomach disorder that he is suffering from now, and every few hours he takes a cold, and from time to time other symptoms are developed. These symptoms the public should know are really secondary to Bright's Disease.

His physicians say that everything medical skill can do for him is being done.

This is not so!

This case is a prominent one because the general is an ex-president and yet there are thousands of farmers quietly dying in the same way of secondary symptoms of Bright's Disease, called by every other conceivable name; thousands of workmen, likewise dying, leaving helpless families; hundreds of men in all walks of life who have [illegible] likewise dying, helpless victims of powerless physicians.

Eight years ago a very well known [illegible] [illegible] to enter upon large commercial [illegible]. His medical adviser [illegible] [illegible] his office one day and told [illegible] [illegible] that he would be dead in [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to settle up [illegible]

[illegible] is alive and well to-day, yet he was [illegible] [illegible] with the same disease [illegible] General Arthur.

[illegible] [illegible] met this gentleman yesterday [illegible] [illegible] about the general's case.

[illegible] [illegible] $5,000 to any charitable institution [illegible] of New York, to be designated [illegible] of the New York World, [illegible] Buffalo News and W. E. [illegible] of the Troy Times, if Warner's [illegible] according to my directions [illegible] me eight years ago, cannot cure [illegible] Arthur of Bright's disease [illegible] which he is suffering."

"[illegible] want you to understand," he [illegible] that we do not profess to make new kidneys [illegible] we do know from personal experience [illegible] the case of many thousands [illegible] [illegible] that we can stop the consumption [illegible] kidneys. Many a man has [illegible] through life with one kidney without [illegible] [illegible] Thousands of people have lived [illegible] the life with one lung. [illegible] [illegible] have a new lung made. We do [illegible] make new kidneys, but if the kidney has [illegible] too much we can stop disease [illegible] [illegible] if taken in time."

[illegible] comes from H. H. Warner, proprietor of Warner's safe cure, of this city.

Mr. Warner also said, "My dear sir, thousands [illegible] governors, senators, presidential candidates [illegible] members of congress, prominent men [illegible] women all over the country whom I personally [illegible] have been cured of disease, such [illegible] General Arthur suffers from, by our Warner's safe cure, but owing to the circles in which they move they do not care to give publicity [illegible] testimonials to the fact."

Mr. Warner is interested in General Arthur's case because he is personally acquainted with him, and he says it is a shame that any [illegible] should be allowed to die under the operation of old fashioned powerful cathartics, which [illegible] no curative effects, rather than that a [illegible] conceded specific for kidney disease whose [illegible] is acknowledged world-wide, should [illegible]

"If you doubt the efficacy of Warner's [illegible] cure," say the proprietors, "ask your [illegible] and neighbors about it. This is asking [illegible] They can tell you all you want to know."

"We have kept a standing offer before the public for four years," says Mr. Warner, "[illegible] we will give $5000 to any person who can successfully dispute the genuineness, so far as we know, of the testimonials we publish, and [illegible] have done it."

Were General Arthur a poor man, [illegible] to left "in the hands of his physician," he would use that great remedy, as many thousands other have done, and get well. How [illegible] then for people to say that everything that [illegible] be done is being done for the ex-president, [illegible] the one successful remedy in the world that [illegible] cured, or that can cure a case like his, has [illegible] been used by them.

To the Cuticura Remedies I owe My Health, My Happiness and My Life.

A day never passes that I do not think and speak kindly of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. Seven years ago all of a dozen lumps formed on my neck, ranging in size from a cherry stone to an orange. The large ones were frightful to look at and painful to bear; people turned aside when they saw me in disgust, and I was ashamed to be on the street or in society. Physicians and their treatment and all medicines failed to do any good. In a moment of despair I tried the CUTICURA REMEDIES, CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new Blood Purifier, internally, the small lumps (as I call them) gradually disappeared and the large ones broke; in about two weeks discharging large quantities of matter, leaving two slight scars in my neck to-day to tell the story of my suffering. My weight then was one hundred and fifteen sickly pounds; my weight now is one hundred and sixty of solid healthy pounds, and my height is only five feet five inches. In my travels I praised the CUTICURA REMEDIES North, South, East and West. To CUTICURA REMEDIES I owe my health, my happiness, and my life. A prominent New York druggist asked me the other day, "Do you still use the CUTICURA REMEDIES? You look to be in perfect health." My reply was, "I do, and shall always. I have never known what sickness is since I commenced using the CUTICURA REMEDIES." Some think I am [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] acquainted with [illegible] [illegible] will come to their senses [illegible] [illegible] that use them as I have [illegible] [illegible] the thin coin [illegible] Supply H[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] fit of humanity [illegible] the CUTICURA REMEDIES shall [illegible] [illegible] of ever intending to [illegible]

Cheap and Inferior Porous Plasters

Will inevitably disappoint you, and aren't worth even the few cents asked for them. Among the numerous porous plasters offered for sale Benson's Capcine Plasters alone merit implicit confidence. They have won their great popularity with the people, and gained the voluntary indorsement of the medical profession, by their unequaled curative power, and by that only. When purchasing be on your guard against worthless imitations under misleading names, such as "Capsicin," "Capsicum," "Capucin," "Capsicine," etc., as certain unscrupulous druggists may try and palm them off on you in place of the genuine. It is better to deal with none but reputable and honorable druggists. Ask for Benson's, and see that it bears the "Three Seals" trade mark, and has the word Capcine cut in the center.

Discussion of the Fisheries Question in the Senate.

THE ROCK SPRINGS OUTRAGES

The House Passes the Oleomargarine Bill by a Vote of 17[illegible] to 101—Confirmation of Western Appointments—Etc.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The chair laid before the senate several messages from the president vetoing private pension bills. They have already been published.

Dawes presented a petition from the city council of Gloucester, Mass., which was appropriately referred, praying for retaliation on the Canadian government for the seizure of American fishing vessels. In presenting the petition Dawes said there seemed to be a disposition on the part of the Canadian government to harass and embarrass citizens of the United States engaged in what could not be but considered lawful commerce. Simple commercial transaction, such as the purchase of provisions, merely had been the cause of the seizure of vessels [illegible] citizens of the United States. It seemed to [illegible] [illegible] Dawes said that there was some dilatoriness on the part of those clothed with the duty of protecting our commerce. He had no doubt the committee on foreign relations were [illegible] the subject proper attention, but Dawes inquired whether that committee could give some assurance that might go to the public that measures would be taken which would protect our citizens in their rights.

REPLIES BY EDMUNDS.

Edmunds said the committee on foreign relations had no power to protect American commerce or American citizens; that belonged to the executive department of the government, and was part of its duty under the laws of the United States and the laws of nations. In the absence of information to the contrary he must presume that the executive department of the government is doing everything it can to protect citizens of the United States whose vessels have been seized or unkindly dealt with by the dominion of Canada. Of course it might have happened that some of these vessels—it might possibly have happened that all of them—had been guilty of violation of the existing laws of Canada. As they had been seized by the public authorities of Canada, of course there must be public pretension on the part of these officers that such was the case. Edmunds hoped it would turn out that the vessels were innocent of any violation of the dominion law or public law, and that they had been engaged in doing what was allowed by the laws of the country and of the country to which they had gone, and that the seizures would therefore be dismissed without even a semblance of probable cause. But that depended of course upon judicial inquiry. He did not mean to say that we would be bound to acquiesce in the results of a Canadian judicial inquiry if we thought those results unjust and improper. If any vessels should be condemned and the United States were of the opinion that the condemnation was unjust we should not be bound by any principle of public justice to acquiesce in it. If we had any spirit left, as he thought we had, and any strength left, as he thought we had, though for some reason we had not been very successful in getting a navy or in arming our sea coast, yet in some way the rights of citizens of the United States would be vindicated if they have been violated.

Continuing, [illegible] [illegible] the president, if he had [illegible] [illegible] act of congress on this subject, would now have the power to retaliate for any injustice done our vessels in Canada or elsewhere. If that act had become a law and if our British brethren were straining a point in order to force us into a convention of reciprocity or free fish or anything else it would now be within the power of the president to take such measures as would tend to correct the abuse. So far as the committee on foreign relations was concerned, however, the subject was not [illegible] [illegible] to enable Edmunds to make any public declaration as to how the matter was or what ought to be done about it.

SENATOR DAWES.

Dawes remarked that it could not have escaped the observation of the committee that armed cruisers of the Canadian government were about the waters on the borders of the three mile limit in search of American vessels, in order that they might under some pretense or other seize them. The entire absence of any armed vessel of the United States in these waters to protect our fishermen in the exercise of lawful commerce led Dawes to inquire whether that was not [illegible] [illegible] of proper power to [illegible] the premises.

In reply [illegible] said no legislation was necessary unless it might be by an appropriation of money, and hardly that, to enable the president of the United States, who is commander in chief of our army and navy, to send out any vessel of the United States, if we happened to have one that could swim. Edmunds presumed it would not be considered disrespectful to express the hope that a ship of the United States government would in due time appear in the northern seas, as a proper and respectful visitor from the shores of her majesty's dominion, to give some little encouragement to American citizens engaged in lawful pursuits.

Hale said the circumstances that gave rise to the dispatch received from Eastport, Me., relating to orders said to have been issued by the Canadian authorities affecting the herring fisheries of the Canadian people themselves and their business in herring with the people of Maine. This matter seemed to Hale to be the gravest thing that had appeared on the horizon. If the rumor was correct, that the Canadian authorities had given directions to break up that industry of their own people, the course they were pursuing indicated more profound mischief than had been heretofore evinced. Whatever could be done by the state department that would bring to the knowledge not only of the fishermen of Maine and Massachusetts but of the people of the United States just what the fundamental purpose of the Ottawa government was would be a benefit to our people. No question had been before the state department for some time that was more grave and of more moment than this question.

VARIOUS MATTERS.

On the suggestion of Dolph, who desires to be absent for a few days, the Northern Pacific forfeiture bill was postponed till Monday next.

On motion of Edmunds the bill indemnifying Chinese for loss sustained in the Rock Springs, Wyo., riot was taken up, and Mitchell addressed the senate on it, arguing at length against any legal or moral obligation to pay the money provided for in this bill. In the course of his remarks he characterized the bill as an insult to American citizenship.

The bill was then laid aside and the bill providing for taxation of railroad grant lands was taken up. [illegible] while sympathizing with the purpose of Hoar's amendment limiting purchases under the act to 160 acres, feared it would embarrass the operation of the bill, and suggested that Hoar withdraw his amendment and embody it in a separate bill with proper detailed provisions, in which form [illegible] would support it.

Hoar, not wishing to embarrass the bill, withdrew his amendment. After considerable debate the bill was passed.

Van Wyck then called up the house bill on the same subject, and on his motion the committee on public lands was discharged from further consideration. He then moved the senate bill as an amendment in the nature of a substitute to the house bill. The motion was agreed to, and the house bill was amended accordingly. On the disagreeing vote of the two houses thus brought about the senate, on motion of Van Wyck, ordered a committee of conference. This has the effect of avoiding the delay which would result from consideration of the entire bill as an original proposition in the house of representatives, and puts it at once in the hands of a conference committee.

Dawes, from the committee on Indian affairs, having reported back the resolution of Wilson of Iowa calling for an investigation of the matter of appointment of Indian traders, with a recommendation that a special committee of five senators be appointed to make the investigation, it was agreed to, and the president pro tempore of the senate designated as such committee Messrs. Williams of Iowa, Miller, Spooner, Harris and Wilson of Maryland. Messrs. Wilson of Iowa, Teller and Spooner asked to be excused, having already as much business as they could attend to. They were excused. Dawes said the committee [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] for a thorough investigation [illegible]

Allison, from the committee on appropriations, reported the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill with amendments. The aggregate appropriation [illegible] [illegible] increased by the senate committee to $[illegible]

REPARATION FOR WYOMING OUTRAGES.

[illegible] called up the bill to indemnify Chinese [illegible] for [illegible] by the riots at Rock Springs, Wyoming, the bill being placed before the senate. [illegible] addressed the senate on it. He characterized the acts complained of as disgraceful to the [illegible] [illegible] in which they occurred and disposed [illegible] to any [illegible] that would not punish [illegible] parties and repair the damage done. This he regarded, and would not qualify. The [illegible] [illegible] the act, he said, were subject to [illegible] laws, and were responsible for their [illegible]. The [illegible] [illegible] was not complicated by any question of state laws interfering with the [illegible] of the United States laws. Our people [illegible] and must receive this government from this [illegible] of our civilization. The matter then went over till to-morrow. Adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Henley of California, from the committee of public lands, reported the bill to relinquish the interest of the United States in certain lands in San Francisco, committee of the whole.

O'Neil of Missouri, from the committee on labor, reported back the senate bill extending the provisions of the eight hour law to letter carriers, house calendar.

The house then resumed consideration of the oleomargarine bill.

[illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] to [illegible] the debate in support of the measure and delivered a long speech in which he reviewed the history of the remarkable contest over this bill and defended the committee on agriculture against attacks made upon it by opponents of the measure.

At the conclusion of Hatch's remarks and after a stormy struggle over a point of parliamentary ruling the house proceeded to vote upon amendments to the bill.

An amendment was agreed to which excluded from the definition of "butter" the product made from milk or cream when coloring matter is used.

The verbiage of the section defining oleomargarine was changed so that the latter clause shall read: "and mixtures and compounds of tallow, beef fat, suet, lard, lard oil, vegetable oil, annato, and other coloring matter, intestinal fat and offal, made in imitation or semblance of butter, or when so made that it is calculated to be sold as butter or for butter."

An amendment requiring hotels and restaurants in the District of Columbia to placard the use of oleomargarine was rejected—yeas [illegible], nays [illegible].

In accordance with an agreement made in the [illegible] [illegible] Hatch submitted an amendment declaring his opposition to [illegible] [illegible] the rate of tax on oleomargarine at [illegible] cents a pound. Rejected, yeas 1[illegible], nays 141.

THE BILL PASSED.

Hatch then offered an amendment fixing the rate at [illegible] cents a pound. Agreed to, yeas 1[illegible], nays 1[illegible].

At this point the proceedings were interrupted to enable W. T. Wallace to take the oath of office as representative from the [illegible] district of [illegible] [illegible] to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Michael Hahn.

Brown of Indiana offered an amendment exempting from tax oleomargarine when sold under its true name. Rejected, yeas 118, nays 153.

Hill of Texas moved to recommit the bill with instructions to the committee on agriculture to report it back with an amendment imposing a tax on [illegible]. Lost, yeas [illegible], nays 1[illegible].

The bill was then passed, yeas 1[illegible], nays 101.

There were not over a dozen members present when the house met this evening, the general debate on the Oklahoma bill. The discussion was devoid of interest, and at 10:30 the house adjourned.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS.

THE OLEOMARGARINE BILL.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The oleomargarine bill as it passed the house to-day contains the following features: Butter is defined to be food product made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with or without common salt, and with or without additional coloring matter. Oleomargarine is defined as all substances made of oleomargarine, oleo, margarine oil, butterine, lardine, suine and neutral; lard extracts and tallow extracts, and all mixtures and compounds of tallow, beef fat, suet, lard, lard oil, vegetable oil, annato and other coloring matter, intestinal fat and offal, made in imitation or semblance of butter, or when so made that it is calculated or intended to be sold as butter or for butter. Special taxes are imposed as follows: On manufacturers, $600; on wholesale dealers, $480; on retail dealers, $48. The existing internal revenue laws, so far as applicable, are made to apply to these special taxes. Penalties are imposed on any person who shall deal in oleomargarine without paying special tax. Provision is made for the proper stamping and labelling of every package of oleomargarine. A tax of five cents a pound is imposed on all oleomargarine manufactured, and a penalty is prescribed for the purchase and reception for sale of oleomargarine not branded or stamped according to law. A number of sections of this bill are devoted to providing machinery to carry the law into effect.

THE MARIPOSA STRIKERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—A consultation was held to-day between Spreckels and others interested in the Oceanic steamship company, and it was decided to employ Chinese to fill the places left vacant by the striking crew of the steamer Mariposa. The strike was occasioned by refusal of the company to employ twelve coal passers instead of nine. It was claimed by the strikers that the latter number was insufficient.

This afternoon a charge of insubordination against seven firemen of the Mariposa was dismissed on the ground that the entry of so-called insubordination was not made in the log book in time for near the time when the offense was committed.

On the opening of the U. S. district court this morning, Judge Hoffman charged the jury in the case of the seven coal passers of the steamship Mariposa charged with disobeying the orders of the captain to work out of watch hours. At 10:[illegible] A. M. the jury retired for deliberation and having failed to agree on a verdict at 10 P. M. were discharged by the court.

A DISHONEST SON.

SAN FRANCISCO, June [illegible].—Thomas L. Sweat, about [illegible] years of age, son of E. D. L. Sweet, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Chicago, presented a forged telegram bearing the signature of his father to a prominent telegraph official in this city of the Central Pacific telegraph lines, and obtained $75 on it. The forged telegram was written on the regular No. 1 blank and pressed copied, presenting in every respect the appearance of a bona fide dispatch. As the railroad telegraph official knew both father and son in Chicago, he promptly cashed the son's draft on his father for $[illegible], but this morning received a dispatch saying the telegram was a forgery. A warrant will be issued for Sweet's arrest, who it is believed is still in California.

CABLE COMPANY INCORPORATED.

The Pacific cable railway company has been incorporated with Leland Stanford, A. S. Hallidie, Charles F. Crocker, Frederick F. Low, James Moffitt and T. J. Wilcutt as directors. The capital stock is $[illegible],000,000, divided into [illegible],000 shares. The object of the new corporation is to amalgamate all the patent rights of the different cable companies in San Francisco, and thus terminate the endless strife at present arising out of infringements of patents.

ADVANCE IN PASSENGER RATES.

To-day several of the overland ticket agents announced rates and others stated that they were anticipating an increase of prices. In offices where prices had been put up the following figures were quoted: New York, limited $[illegible], unlimited $[illegible] for first class to third class $[illegible]. For Chicago, limited $6[illegible].50, unlimited $[illegible] for first class. Denver $50 and $60 for unlimited.

GEN. SHERMAN COMING.

The general committee of the G. A. R. have received a letter from Gen. W. T. Sherman announcing his acceptance of an invitation to attend the encampment to be held in August. He will be present with his family.

ALASKA.

AN INTERESTING BUDGET OF NEWS FROM SITKA.

SITKA, May [illegible] via NANAIMO, June [illegible].—The arrival of the steamship Ancon was a surprise to our citizens. The news of getting two steamers in one month is something that the oldest citizens never expected to see.

Times have been very lively in Sitka for the last ten days on account of district court being in session. Everybody is much pleased with the way Judge Dawson deals out justice. The grand jury has indicted forty-five people for selling and introducing whisky into Alaska. There is now a chance to have the whisky question settled by the courts.

Henry [illegible], United States commissioner at Juneau, has been arrested and is on trial for not making proper returns of his office.

Indians report a great quantity of wreckage of an unknown vessel being washed ashore on the south end of Prince of Wales island. There were several barrels of butter and some ship stores washed ashore about three weeks ago.

It is reported that the grand jury was trying to have the agents of the steamship company indicted for transportation of tramps and cranks into the territory.

The U. S. steamer Pinta has been at Chilkat about five weeks. Capt. Nicols reports everything quiet with the Indians, and says all the miners have gone to the Yukon feeling confident of a good summer's work.

The mill at Douglas island is running at its full capacity day and night. It ships $[illegible] gold bars for the last month's work. It will do better in future, as they have struck some very rich rock on the line between their property and the Bear's Nest mine.

The new steamer Alaskan is on her maiden trip up the Stickeen river.

The schooner [illegible] landed about [illegible] gallons of whisky on her last trip to Alaska.

The steamer Yukon arrived at Juneau May [illegible].

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

WALLA WALLA ITEMS.

WALLA WALLA, June 3.—Sergeant Smith's house, six miles from town, burned Wednesday morning. Loss $[illegible],600; insured for $1[illegible]00. The fire was caused by coals blown from a stove by the wind.

Mark [illegible], a Frenchman, committed suicide near Whitman station this morning during mental aberration. He was thrown from a horse the night before.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE ELECTION.

OLYMPIA, June 3.—The election of Masonic grand lodge officers took place to-day. All the officers were re-elected except Walter J. Smith of Tacoma, who was elected senior warden, and H. [illegible] Sharpstein, of Walla Walla, junior warden. Installation takes place about Saturday.

J. W. Collins & Sons, the leading druggists of Newark, Ohio, say: "WASHBURN'S SALICYLICA is without doubt the best remedy for Rheumatism and Neuralgia that we have sold since in the drug trade, which is over 23 years." Sold by Druggists.

President Cleveland and his Bride at Deer Park.

A VERY QUIET DAY IN A COTTAGE

Last Day of the Knights of Labor Convention—Herr Most at Work on Blackwell's Island—Sporting Events—Etc.

DEER PARK, Md., June 3.—The president and his bride [illegible] twenty-four hours spent the first day of their honeymoon [illegible] feet above the sea in one of the most beautiful and romantic parts of Maryland. They are in a cottage situated about fifty yards from Deer Park station, and have of course been the center of interest to all parties living within a radius of ten miles. The run from Washington was made in about six hours, and just at daybreak this morning the train stopped at a point about 100 yards from the station and in front of the May [illegible]. In a special attached to the train were John W. Davis, President Garrett's assistant, and Charles Selden, superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph company. Two carriages sent from Washington were in waiting when the party arrived. A drizzling rain was falling as the president and Mrs. Cleveland left their car. The drive to the cottage occupied but a few minutes.

Until noon there was no sign of either the bride or groom. The cottage is new and is situated within 100 feet of Robert Garrett's private cottage, with the chapel of the little village about the same distance on the other side. The house is built in Queen Anne style with peaked roof, and contains eleven rooms. It sits on a knoll and commands a picturesque view. A veranda runs around the house, and the dining room is in the rear. No cooking is done in the house, all meals being prepared in the hotel near by.

A CHEERFUL RECEPTION.

When the party entered the house a cheerful fire was burning brightly on the hearth and made a pleasant contrast to the chilly atmosphere without. The house is guarded by twelve detectives, who are required to know nothing, and the admonition is hardly necessary, as not a word will they utter on any subject.

Mr. Davis said that the president had strictly enjoined secrecy before he would consent to come here, and the company had tried to give him as much privacy as possible. He will not even receive mail and does not intend to see any one during his stay. He will certainly remain here until Saturday and probably until Monday. The train on which he came is still here at his service in case he should take a notion to leave at any time.

The season at Deer Park does not open until June 1[illegible], consequently few are here. Those who have arrived are ex-Senator Davis, wife and son; five children of Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins; J. W. Williams of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Hollins and three children of Baltimore.

THE PRESIDENT WILL FISH.

The bridal party is attended by a French maid, the president's valet and two colored servants. Their luggage consisted of four large trunks and two boxes. Mrs. Cleveland brought only such garments as would insure comfort, but the president brought with him a fishing suit and outfit. He will commence his piscatorial sport to-morrow. The first trout stream in the Alleghanies is on the property of ex-Senator Davis, near by. It is guarded jealously, and the president will be given the privilege of using it. It is said a party will be here from Washington to-morrow to get up some amusement, but the president explicitly refuses to see any one now.

There was no stir about the executive mansion until near noon, when the president came out on the porch for a moment and then went inside. Two ladies drove slowly by about 12 o'clock, evidently intending to call, but changed their minds when told they could not approach the house.

Mr. Davis called about 1 o'clock and found the president seated on the porch smoking a cigar and Mrs. Cleveland reading a few feet away. She was dressed in a dark silk costume and looked extremely well.

At [illegible] o'clock a carriage was called, and the bride and groom took a short drive.

At [illegible] o'clock dinner was served from the hotel, and at 6 o'clock the president seized a fishing bamboo cane and his tall hat and accompanied by his wife, walked around back of the cottage and down to the railway track. He was dressed as is his custom in a black Prince Albert suit. Mrs. Cleveland was in very good spirits and her walk, which was of springy, swinging gait, added a graceful poise to her other charms. The president has arranged for a fishing party to-morrow, in which he will have the company of ex-Senator Davis.

REMOVAL OF THE DECORATIONS.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Nearly 200 persons, principally ladies, entered the White house grounds to-day in the hope to be able to inspect the floral decorations, and particularly the Blue room, where the marriage was solemnized last evening. They began to arrive before eight o'clock and continued to come until the afternoon. All, however, were disappointed, and none of them were able to get further than the main entrance. Here their progress was arrested by the doorkeepers, who informed them that the house was closed for the day and that orders had been issued by Col. Lamont to admit nobody, except on public business. Inside workmen were engaged from an early hour removing plants and all floral decorations and cleaning up the house generally. This work consumed several hours but was fully completed by 1 o'clock, and there was nothing left in the general appearance of the rooms to indicate that the president's wedding had occurred but a few hours before. Most of the flowers used in the decoration were distributed among the city hospitals.

DR. SUNDERLAND'S FEE.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—The Examiner's Washington special says: Rev. Dr. Sunderland received a fee of $20 for tying the presidential marriage knot. It was a brand new bill and had never apparently been in circulation. It was handed to the doctor by Secretary Lamont immediately after the president's departure. The doctor made his wife a present of the bill. Mrs. Sunderland will keep it as a memento of the occasion.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Last Day of the Convention—An Address to Workingmen.

CLEVELAND, June 3.—At the morning's meeting of the general assembly of the Knights of Labor David R. Gibson of Hamilton, Ont., Joseph R. [illegible] of Denver, Col., and Ira B. Aylsworth of Baltimore, Md., were elected assistants to the executive board.

CLEVELAND, June 3.—The Knights of Labor convention is over. The general assembly at [illegible] o'clock this evening, after a ten days' session, adjourned sine die. At the afternoon session to-day an address was adopted of which the following is the substance:

"We, Knights of Labor in general assembly convened, extend our heartiest greetings to all branches of honorable toil, welcoming them to a most friendly alliance in common work. We seek to raise the level of wages and reduce the hours of labor, to protect men and women in their occupation, in their lives and limbs and in their rights as citizens. We seek also to secure such legislation as will tend to prevent the unjust accumulation of wealth, to restrict the powers of monopolies and corporations, and to enact such wise and beneficial legislation as shall promote equity and justice. We recognize the service rendered humanity and the cause of labor by trades unions, and we will gladly welcome to our ranks any organization requesting admission."

The address then refers to the treaty recently presented by the meeting of trades unions, but believing that the object sought therein can best be accomplished by conference between committees, action is deferred until such conference can be held. The address then discusses certain details of the plan for the harmonious mingling of interests between the Knights of Labor and members of trades unions, and advocating the principles of arbitration whenever there is a demand of increase of wages or shorter hours of labor.

The trades unionists to-night declare that the address is unsatisfactory to them. The general assembly before adjourning issued an address denying that the Home Club was engaged in plotting against the welfare of the order and saying that the very best feeling prevailed among all the delegates. An address was also issued to the [illegible] complimenting them and asking their aid. Powderly will leave for Scranton to-morrow.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

THE TRANSCONTINENTAL SITUATION.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The Times says: "Now that a new board of Pacific Mail steamship directors has been chosen, and its personnel being practically unchanged, with a very decided leaning toward peace with the transcontinental lines, it is announced that there probably will be another effort to bring about some agreement for renewal of the subsidy of $[illegible],000 a month and an advance of rates. Whether that can be arranged or not is of course a matter of conjecture, but one thing is certain, the old rates will never again be restored. The rates may be advanced, but not to the old figures, and last year's rates to the Pacific coast will never be again seen."

THE STRIKE AT PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, June 3.—The largest strike in this city for years occurred Tuesday. The new wage list recently presented to the hosiery manufacturers by local assembly No. 3[illegible]66, Knights of Labor, and which calls for a heavy increase of wages, was to have gone into effect on the 1st of June, but all manufacturers refused to adopt it, and the hands, numbering between 11,000 and 12,000, were ordered out. The manufacturers declare that the new schedule calls for an increase of from 40 to 100 per cent, and even runs up to 200 per cent in some cases.

GOV. HILL IN LOVE.

ALBANY, June 3.—Gov. Hill is in love, and it is to-day currently reported that he will emulate President Cleveland's illustrious example by bidding adieu to bachelorhood. A wealthy young widow of this city is said to have ensnared his affections, and the circles of society of which she is an honored and charming member are greatly interested over their reported engagement. Although the lady is a native of this city she does not now reside here, but it is whispered that she presides over a little brown cottage in Elmira City, in which the governor lives when at home. The lady is also well known in this city, having spent the better part of her winters here since the demise of her husband five years ago. Col. Doubleday, of Chemung county, N. Y., who is on his way home from his Idaho ranches, states that he met a very intimate friend of Gov. Hill in St. Louis a few days ago who asserted that the marriage of the governor would take place this fall.

FIRE AT DURANGO, COL.

DENVER, June 3.—Fire at Durango, Col., last night completely destroyed T. Kruschke's dry goods house, with contents. Loss $[illegible],000; insurance $30,000. The hardware house of Adams, Posey & Ball was also damaged $5,000, partially insured. The fire is supposed to have started from the explosion of a lamp in Kruschke's store.

JOHN MUIR, TRAFFIC MANAGER.

NEW YORK, June 3.—John Muir has been appointed general traffic manager of the Chesapeake & Ohio system, embracing the Huntington lines between the Atlantic seaboard and the Mississippi river. His headquarters will be in this city.

WILL PLAY IN SAN FRANCISCO.

CHICAGO, June 3.—A contract was signed to-day with the Vienna tragedian Frederick Mitterwurzer for a star engagement at the Baldwin theater, San Francisco, beginning July [illegible].

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

MOST ON BLACKWELL'S ISLAND.

NEW YORK, June [illegible].—Anarchist Most will swing a blacksmith hammer at Blackwell's island for one year. Then he will pay a fine of $500 or stay the hammer 500 days more. That was his sentence imposed by Recorder Smyth yesterday. His two companions were sentenced for nine months. When Most reached Blackwell's island he was taken to the bath room. Then he was placed under the barber's hands, by whom his repulsive blonde beard was removed by a few deft clips, and the hideous deformity of his face revealed. The left side of Most's lower jaw is entirely caved in, and most of his chin is gone. He says a mule kicked him. Standing in his convict garb, shivering with fright, a hopeless, forlorn look on his face, with his eyes wandering, unable to bear the gaze of bystanders, his upper lip falling down over his lower one, the bomb dynamiter seemed completely broken down and cowed. Braunschweig and Schenck kept up appearances after a fashion, and the contrast they presented to their fallen chief was striking.

The Times says editorially: If ever a man earned death on the gallows Most has earned it. Society and civilization are bound by their own safeguards not to proceed against the enemy of both except under safeguards against doing him injustice. Most's sentence is proof that they are not without weapons against their enemies, blunted though these weapons be, and that it has not yet become necessary to deal with creatures like Most as we did with rabid dogs. Inadequate as the punishment is, it is better for the community to be content with inflicting it because it is all the law provides than to execute swift and informal justice upon the scaffold or by hanging him to a lamp post.

BUDDENSIEK TAKEN TO PRISON.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Charles A. Buddensiek, builder of the tumbled houses, was sentenced to ten years [illegible] and fined $500 for manslaughter. [illegible] was this morning taken to Sing Sing.

THE MAXWELL MURDER TRIAL.

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—Arguments in the Maxwell [illegible] continued to-day, and as counsel have not concluded in respect to the [illegible] the case [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] jury until Saturday.

THE FISHERIES TROUBLE.

ADVICES FROM DIGBY.

NEW YORK, June 3.—A Digby, N. S., special to the Commercial Advertiser says: Two of the police cruisers have gone to Newfoundland to watch American fishermen. Yesterday a dispatch was received from St. Johns that two American schooners, heavily armed, were in that neighborhood, boasting that they would sink any police boat sent against them. One is believed to be the New York schooner Herrick. Dominion fishermen are alarmed lest these Yankee boats may take it into their heads to practice upon some of their craft. The cruiser Bellerophon has been sent to St. Johns to look after these combative Americans.

Capt. Scott, commander in chief of the Canadian fishery police, has returned to his home in Newfoundland, and intends to shortly send in his resignation, being disgusted with his duties. He will resume his old position as chairman of the dominion fishery board.

Information received this morning states that [illegible],600 British troops have been ordered to Halifax. Why they are needed is unknown.

CANADIAN BARGE SEIZED.

CHICAGO, June 3.—The Canadian steam barge [illegible] arrived here to-day, and Collector Seeberger will not allow her to depart until instructions are received from Washington. The seizure of the vessel is due to the fact that she failed to touch at Mackinaw or Sheboygan on entering American waters for permission to proceed, as is required by law. The penalty is forfeiture of the vessel and cargo. Capt. Conlan says his reason for not obeying the law was that the boat had sprung a leak in a storm and the men were required to work incessantly at the pumps, and to have put in at either of the ports mentioned would have endangered the lives of the crew. The vessel arrived here in a sinking condition. The captain reported the circumstance to the collector, but the latter said he could not depart from the rule except upon instructions to that effect from Washington.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

NEWS ITEMS FROM VICTORIA.

VICTORIA, June 3.—Arrived—H. M. flagship Triumph, [illegible] days from Honolulu. Sailed—Ship Ocean [illegible], coal, from Departure bay for San Francisco.

Sproule's execution is fixed for the 6th inst., which falls on Sunday. It is believed he will be reprieved and a new trial granted. His counsel is at Ottawa, straining every nerve in his behalf.

Two Chinamen, one sentenced to death for murder, the other to twenty-five years imprisonment for robbing with violence, attempted suicide by hanging in a cell at Yale on Monday. The were cut down in time to save their lives.

Arrived—Nanaimo, steamer Ancon, Sitka.

A telegram from Ottawa states that Sproule is reprieved a month pending decision of the supreme court in his case.

DEFENSES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

OTTAWA, June 3.—Before parliament adjourned yesterday and while the vote on appropriations, $[illegible] for military works and defenses in British Columbia was taken, Sir Adolphe Caron explained that the object of the appropriation was to provide earthworks, and other military defenses, which would cost in all about $100,000. The imperial government proposed to furnish guns, torpedoes, etc., which would cost from $125,000 to $150,000. The purpose is that the imperial government had [illegible] [illegible] Victoria and Esquimalt imperial stations on the Pacific ocean. A graving dock is now being constructed at Esquimalt toward which the imperial government contributes $[illegible]. As soon as the works are finished it will become one of the most important military stations of [illegible].

ARIZONA.

MURDERED BY INDIANS.

TUCSON, May 3.—A courier has just arrived from Willis' ranch, east of Fort Lowell, with intelligence that Indians killed Dr. Clinton L. Davis this afternoon, who had gone out in that section for a drive. He was from Iowa, with his wife and family visiting his brother, W. C. Davis, of Tucson. There were eight Indians in the party.

FRESH OUTBREAK OF APACHES.

TOMBSTONE, May 3.—It is reported from Graham county that about 100 White Mountain Apaches have left the reservation, and are now raiding in Graham and Cochise counties.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, JUNE 4, 1886

H. W. S.

TILLAMOOK.

Over to the west from us, lying along the ocean for something more than a hundred miles, there is a section of country which immigrants who are now arriving in such numbers, hear little about. It lies apart from the body of the state, away from any line of travel, and is hedged in by the ocean on the west and mountains on the east. There is not even a good road over the mountains. Communication by water via the Columbia river is easy and cheap, but the route is only served occasionally by packets, and attracts only those few persons who have business with the little Tillamook community. But while Tillamook county is thus aside, it is actually close at hand. The distance in miles across the coast range is short, and the grades are easy. A good road must soon be built. By ocean, it is but half a day's sail from the Columbia river to the Tillamook harbor, which is a convenient and safe schooner port.

Tillamook is described as a country of rare attraction. It has the equable coast climate—never very warm nor very cold, no snow to speak of and green pastures the year through. The county is timbered for the most part, and is seamed by numberless pure streams, each with its lovely valley, rich in soil and luxuriant with native grasses. Tillamook is the absolute perfection of a stock and dairying country. Range, water, climate, each the best possible for the production of stock and their products. The country is still very new and its population small. Immigrants have not found their way there in any considerable numbers. There is still much good land open to settlement. We can heartily commend Tillamook as a land of fatness, and hope to see it gain the population it m[illegible]

SENTIMENT AND STRENGTH.

We sometimes wonder if those dread days should come again, when our sons were suddenly summoned to battle in the days of youth, health and beauty—days when the blood leaps in the veins and life never looks so lovely or appeals so strongly—whether we could count on the warlike manliness of the nation to do its devoir as noble as before. We have grown in refinement; we have grown in certain kinds of culture, we care more for that ornamental art that flatters and fascinates the few, we think less of utilitarian industrial art that blesses the many; we have grown greatly in non-essentials. Have we grown, or even held our own, in martial manhood? The best assurance that we have not lost sensibly in national unity is the fact that, although the war is twenty-one years gone, the popular respect for its memories, the popular interest in its history waxes rather than wanes with time. Honor and freedom do annually repair as pilgrims to "bless the turf that wraps the clay" of our dead soldiers, and the tenacity of this reverence for the best memories of the war is proof that we are still a people who would fight with all our ancient ardor for the flag. Then better the hereditary poverty and undying pugnacity of Ireland than the commercial wealth and cowardice of old Venice. The shining sails of her ships were seen on every sea, but she was no great state, for that means a happy breed of men, high-minded men; while Venice was but an opulent argosy, rich in silks and stuffs and spices, poor in men and deeds and thoughts worth ranking after her.

H. W. S.

Says the bogus paper: "THE OREGONIAN ignores the fact that the first duty of a newspaper is to chronicle contemporary events." This, considering the source, is extremely rich. In another column of the same issue of the bogus paper, under the head of "Summary of the News," we read: "Mr. Blaine has written accepting an invitation to attend the Gladstone meeting to be held at Portland, Me., next Tuesday, and promising to speak." That meeting was held last Tuesday. Mr. Blaine was present and made a speech, and the speech was reported in full next day in THE OREGONIAN, while the bogus paper which gives it as a precept of journalism that "the first duty of a newspaper is to chronicle contemporary events," hadn't a word of it, and now puts over the event a whole week after it actually occurred and the report of it had been given to the world. And this is only a single incident in its manner of chronicling contemporary events." It still habitually prints, as heretofore, and under "raised" dates, old, stale matter clipped from newspapers received by mail, much of which, when it was news, had appeared in THE OREGONIAN long before. Some specimens of this work we present in another column to-day. It is, indeed, a great thing to be a "newspaper," and to "chronicle contemporary events." The bogus paper also remarks: "Ancient history may be serviceable enough in its way, but that is not what people buy newspapers for." The which, we conclude, is the reason why nobody buys the bogus paper. Its amusing assumption that THE OREGONIAN can no longer expect to be "a living factor in journalism" reminds us of the wail of the distiller about the "prohibition crank," who, "in the holy name of religion is propagating a doctrine that leads straight to infidelity."

The Thomas iron company of Pennsylvania proposes to erect two blast furnaces upon its ore lands in the vicinity of Birmingham, Ala. Each furnace will cost $1,000,000 and will have a capacity for making 1200 tons of pig iron a week. It is estimated that the production of pig iron in such large quantities will cheapen its cost to such an extent that after the payment of freight it can be placed in the Philadelphia market at a price $2.00 per ton lower than the irons of Pennsylvania can be sold. The Philadelphia iron market is embarrassed now by Southern-made irons offered at prices 50 cents lower than the regular market price. These irons are brought as ballast by vessels which are loaded with cotton. Enterprises under consideration in the South and Southwest next year include bridges, railroads and many other things into which iron enters that will absorb an enormous yield.

Ex-Senator Thurman is the keenest, most vigorous and practical politician of his party. Originally one of the most uncompromising of hard money men, no sooner did he perceive that "greenbackism" was likely to become popular than he at once became a greenbacker and a stupid fiat money fellow, but an advocate of the issuance of treasury notes in place of national bank notes. The Western and Southern democracy stand by this theory of finance to-day, and so for that matter do a good many Western republicans. Blaine answered Thurman's move on the chessboard from the East by planting himself decisively on the platform of hard money. The extremity of antagonistic opinions on the subject of finance is represented by Thurman and Blaine. If Thurman were ten years younger he would be the most powerful politician in his party, for Hendricks is dead and Tilden has become an "innocuous desuetude."

The Virginia City (Nev.) Enterprise remarks: "It is, to say the least, unpleasant to see the capital of the free American state of Nevada thus convulsed from stem to stern and its whole political and social economy ravished and totally demoralized, as it were, by a very few Chinamen. Why could they not leave the conversion of the heathen to the churches, which collect their coin for that very purpose, sending it to Chosen, Burmah or Borrioboola Gha, instead of retaining it at home? The Chinese are not the only people who send money out of the country. The general public and people of Carson do not seem to be in the least benefited by this agitation."

Many persons, particularly on the east side, are petitioning the county court for reduction of ferry rates. During the last month THE OREGONIAN has printed many letters on the subject, mostly directed against the Stark street ferry. It seems to be the idea that this ferry is the only one interested. But the rates fixed by the county courts must be the same for all the ferries, and there are three others beside the one at Stark street. If the rates are made very low the Stark street ferry is probably the only one that can be operated; the other ferries, having but little traffic as compared with it, may cease to be profitable or to pay the cost of maintenance and operation, while the Stark street concern, having the bulk of the business already, will be very likely to absorb the remainder of it. One-half the rate now charged might yield enough to operate the ferry at Stark street, but would they yield enough to operate the ferries at the other points?

Ten years ago the supply of salmon in the rivers of Maine had become almost exhausted. The present run of salmon is the largest ever known since the [illegible] fishing of the Penobscot began, so successful has the work of the United States fish commission been in restoring these fish to their old haunts. The fish commission reports that the experiment has fully "demonstrated that races of land locked salmon can be established by artificially fecundating the eggs and breeding salmon from parents which have never made a journey to the sea. The second generation reared from them under like land locked conditions is also fertile. There is no reason, therefore, why this superb and most valuable fish may not be raised in large numbers in many of our inland waters to which he is now a stranger."

It is provided in the charter under which the Willamette Iron Bridge company will build its bridge opposite Morrison street that the toll rates shall be fixed by the county court.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, entirely different from any other. Try it.

PICNIC, CAMPING AND SEAS DE PARTIES

Should not fail to add to their commissary stores a stock of SODA WATER BON BONS (a recent German invention for producing Soda Water without the expense of a Soda Water apparatus. Bon Bons are lumps of sugar containing in the center all the necessary chemicals for carbonating. Throw a Bon Bon into a glass of cold water; the sugar first dissolves, making the requisite quantity of finely flavored syrup; next follows the solution of the force powder, at once producing a sparkling effervescing glass of Soda Water. These Bon Bons are difficult and expensive to make, and are now offered as a means of furnishing cheaper Soda Water but for their convenience and elegance. Sold in boxes containing packets of 5, 10 and 36 assorted flavors at 10c per packet or 3 for 25c. Ask your druggist for them. 1t

CALLED MEETING

All members and ladies interested in the [illegible] of the temperance cause are earnestly requested to be present at the meeting of the Portland W. C. T. U. this afternoon at 2:30 at their hall, on First street, near Columbia. COM.

Persons going on the excursion to morrow to the falls and Cascades can remain at the falls until the return of the steamer or they can go on to the beautiful picnic grounds on the portage railroad opposite the Cascades and remain until they have time to see the matchless beauty of this wonderful cataract. Everything points to the most comfortable and enjoyable excursion yet given. The boat leaves Ash street dock at [illegible]30. A first class lunch will be ready for all who don't want to trouble with a basket. Tickets at Hodgin & Streibig's, corner Second and Washington, also at 166, 168 and [illegible] First street.

Beautiful Soda Fountains

Wm. Plunder, the well known chemist [illegible] manufactured a lot of marble soda counter apparatus which he intends to offer for sale at auction [illegible] Gilman's Friday, June 4. It is a pleasure to note that the home industry also in this [illegible] prospers in our state. In appearance as well as quality of things these fountains are excellent; we have seen and give the maker great credit. Interested buyers ought to watch this [illegible]

That Bridge

The bridge across the Willamette is a sure thing now, and there are two kinds of property which will be greatly increased in value by it, those on the high ground in East Portland and small houses in the vicinity of Mt. Tabor. Lent & Voss are the agents for many desirable parcels of either kind. The prices are very low and the terms reasonable. You will find them at No. 10 Stark street, Portland, Oregon.

I have been asked the question why I declined to run for sheriff of Multnomah county. I will state that I have not declined, neither do I [illegible] but am doing all I can honorably to elect [illegible] and would beg to inform those starting such a [illegible] in the interest of an [illegible] [illegible] expect to be elected. At this race I will [illegible] not one in the race for that office. Z. T. WHITE

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE Y M C A BUILDING.—During the past few weeks a thorough canvass has been organized to raise the funds necessary to secure the offer of Mr W S Ladd and erect a building for the association. The following gentlemen are a committee on during the next few days. Messrs. Wm Wadhams, C H Dodd, James Steel, F Quackenbush, G W Staver, A M Smith, F E Beach, J ... Haseltine, I A Macrum, R K Warren and C ... Fay. The young men of the association have already subscribed over $1000 and several are actively at work canvassing. The first offer of Mr Ladd was conditioned upon the required sum being raised by May 1, but the time was extended to July 1, when the agreement will be void unless the full amount is ... according to last ... been subscribed was $ ... Some amounts have however been secured since and not as yet reported. The committee have before them no small task to secure $13,000 during the next three weeks and unless a very vigorous effort is made the outlook ... seem to be doubtful. The gentlemen of the committee however seem to be hopeful and say the prospect is encouraging. The design for the building that will probably be fully adopted by the board of directors at its next meeting is now being photographed by Abell & Son who have donated a generous supply to the association to use in the canvass. Mr F W Watkins who has assisted the association in its work will meet with their board ... Monday night and tender ... a farewell reception ... the following Wednesday on which evening he will leave for New York via San Francisco. The task before the friends of the association is ... and it is believed will ... they rise to the occasion.

AN OLD DEBT NOT OUTLAWED.—The United States has commenced suit in its court here against W W Raymond to recover $50,316 46, which sum, it is alleged, has been due the government for over thirty years. Mr Raymond is a pioneer and one of the ... for any band ... around the Horn to this region in 1849. In 18... he was appointed ... sub-Indian agent for the Indians of Oregon and must have had the disposition of considerable funds, as when his accounts were sent in there was a discrepancy of the amount mentioned above ... figured out by the lightning calculators at Washington. It does not appear that lightning struck anywhere else in the matter for it is only now, after thirty years have elapsed and Raymond who lives at Clatsop has become a poor crippled old man and his bondsmen have all gone beyond the jurisdiction of this court that suit is brought to recover the irrecoverable. If the alleged indebtedness was due any one except Uncle Sam, it would have long ago been outlawed, but no time runs against the king, and Mr Raymond owes that 50,000 and odd dollars just as much as he did thirty years ago and he is just as able to owe it. His friends say the trouble all arises from some error made by some one in his accounts.

SHEEP TO CHICAGO.—Mr George Wright who started from Arlington about three weeks since with twelve double decked cars, loaded with wethers for the Chicago market was in the city yesterday. He was in high feather having made a most successful trip and caught the highest market, thereby raking in many shekels of profit. He was accompanied by his faithful shepherd dog, which has made the trip to Chicago eight times. When one finds out that the whole 2000 sheep had to be unloaded and loaded back on the cars seven times on the voyage he better understands the use for a dog. The sheep travel twenty-four hours and are then turned out to eat and drink for twenty four hours. They soon get used to this sort of thing and scramble out of and into the cars without much trouble. Mr Wright's friends who left a few days later with sheep for Chicago got in in time to catch a low market, and consequently they did not make so much. Mr Wright has 8000 sheep on the range between Wallula and Fossil and will ship another drive in a short time.

COMPANY G'S EXCURSION.—As before announced Company G will give an excursion to Astoria, Fort Canby and Ilwaco on Saturday of next week, the 12th inst. They have secured the magnificent steamer Olympian which will leave Ash street at 1:30 P M. On Sunday morning she will steam over to the coast and returning leave Astoria at 4 P M arriving here by early bedtime. The Olympian has been put into fine condition for her regular summer's work and it is not unlikely that the fastest time ever made between Portland and Astoria will be slow as compared with the time to be made on the 12th. A full brass band will be taken down and the company will go in full uniform. There is so much room on the Olympian that she can carry 1,500 passengers and give every one all the room he wants. Of the fine appointments of the steamer but few people know from actual observation and here is a good opportunity to learn. The fare for the complete round trip is $2.

TO THE SEASIDE.—Provision is being made for the entertainment of excursionists to the seaside on the steamer Olympian on Saturday June 12 under the auspices of Grace church. Some of the best musical talent in the city has been secured and the Chautauquans will also assist. The nature of the programme and the persons to take part will be announced later. The Olympian will leave Portland at ... A. M., arrive at Astoria at 12 M, Ilwaco at 1 P M, Fort Canby at 1:30 P M. Returning at 4 P M, arriving at Portland at 10 P M. Should any of the excursionists desire to remain over at Astoria their tickets will be good for return trip on Monday on the regular boat. The Olympian is the only steamer running from Portland to the seaside that can go direct to Ilwaco and Fort Canby, as she is a large side-wheel steamer, the small stern wheel boats not being permitted to do so. Tickets: Astoria $1 50, Ilwaco and Fort Canby, $ ... children, $1.

BERRIES FROM MOUNT TABOR.—A dozen boxes of strawberries from Mr Hosford's place, on the slope of Mount Tabor, were left at the reporters' room of THE OREGONIAN yesterday by Mr J Fred Clark. They are by far the largest and finest berries seen around the office this season. Mr Hosford has been sending large quantities of choice berries to market for some time, this fruit and other small fruits ripening about two weeks earlier on the sides of Mount Tabor than on the plains below. If it were not for the desirability of Mount Tabor property for residence purposes it would soon be covered with gardens. There is plenty of water on the place, springs gushing out in many spots and good water can be found by digging a short distance in any part of the mountain. This slight elevation will soon be the residence of many of our wealthy citizens. It is just the right distance from the city to be desirable and its elevation and the pure air and water are conducive of good health.

TRYING THE POWER OF THE PRESS.—Some two months since a well known citizen left an umbrella at some house in this city where he had called. It was a black silk umbrella, the handle a Malacca stick. The loser, who says he calls at the houses of respectable people only, is confident that his umbrella, which is a favorite, would be returned by the people at whose house he left it if they only knew who it belonged to. He accordingly determined to state his loss and a description of his umbrella in THE OREGONIAN, confident of having it returned, and a friend who does not realize fully the power of the press has wagered a suit of clothes that his plan will be a failure. The Malacca cane handle of this umbrella has been broken just below the cover and mended with an iron ring. Any one having such an umbrella will please leave it at THE OREGONIAN office and receive the thanks of the owner.

THE WEEK'S SHOOTING TOURNAMENT.—The second annual tournament of the Sportsmen's Association of the Northwest begins at City View park at 9 o'clock this morning. A number of sportsmen are here from Seattle, Salem, Eugene City and Kalama to contest for the championship and for the magnificent array of prizes displayed in the window at A ... ber's store. The most valuable prize a fine ... ... by ... ... Hudson will be shot for the first thing this morning, entries closing at 9 o'clock. Those who wish to participate in this ... must take an early boat or they will be ... ... in every sense. The steamer Bell wood will ... to accommodate those who wish to attend the tournament. She will make special trips to-day and to-morrow and Sunday will run every half hour between the park and Alder dock at the foot of Washington street.

A BORROWED DOG.—Yesterday ... ... Henry Willmer's wagon passed down Third street with several captive canines therein. One of them was a little yellow dog probably not worth ... to any one except some youngster whose pet it had been, and not at all likely to be bailed out. The poor little wretch had a most expressive countenance and as it peered over the rail of the wagon through the net in which it was entangled the emotions of fear, sorrow, shame and disgust were marked on its features while it eagerly scanned the crowd on the sidewalks in search of some familiar or friendly face. The other dogs in the wagon seemed hardened and did not care for or realize their misfortune but the wistful face of the little yellow dog caused all beholders to pity him.

ARRESTED FOR GAMBLING.—Something must be wrong around police headquarters. Ah ... a Chinaman, was arrested on a charge of throwing dice for money and is to be tried to-day. There isn't anything very strange in this fact but there is in the circumstance that gambling is openly carried on and has been for a year past, and at the present time our celestial residents run a dice game in the joss house with open doors. The jingle of coin and the rattling of the chips can easily be heard by any passer-by, and no objection is made if he choose to enter and look on for a half hour or so. But of course none of the policemen ever heard anything about this before.

NEW SUITS INSTITUTED.—Hinz & Landt, wholesale dealers in millinery and straw goods at 543 Market street, San Francisco, yesterday brought suit against P Van Fridagh to recover $291 61, being a balance due on a bill of goods sold and delivered by plaintiff to defendant between the 30th day of August, 1883 and the 12th of April, 1884. Sweet, Dempster & Co have commenced an attachment suit against W J Quinn to recover $788 for goods and wares sold and delivered during the months of February and March last.

A CASE FROM THE COUNTRY.—A transcript from the Powell's valley justice's court was filed in the office of the county clerk yesterday in the case of the state of Oregon vs Louis Shattuck, a farmer's son. Shattuck was arrested on a charge of assault with an attempt to commit an outrage April 5 on Minnie Tomlinson. He waived examination to appear before the grand jury and was released from custody by Justice Roork on $500 bond. Mrs Kate Fox swore to the complaint against young Shattuck.

TO THE PARK.—To accommodate persons wishing to witness the shooting contest at City View park of the Multnomah rod and gun club the steamer Calliope will run on the following time—wharf foot of Alder street 8 and 9 A M, 12 M, 1, 3 and 4 P M. Fare, round trip 25 cents.

LAWN PARTY.—The young ladies of the Unitarian church will give a lawn party at Mrs. Moffett's on Friday next. Dancing will take place on a platform built for the occasion, and refreshments will be served, including all the summer luxuries. Admission 50 cents.

THE COMPANY ELECTION.—At the annual meeting of the Portland Tugboat company the following directors were chosen: H W Corbett, W S Ladd, D P Thompson, W J Burns, James Laidlaw, J J Cameron and W S Sibson. The directors held a meeting and elected H W Corbett as president and W S Sibson as secretary. H W Corbett, D P Thompson and W S Sibson were chosen as the executive committee.

CALVARY CHURCH ELECTION.—Last night the Calvary Presbyterian society held its annual election. The following gentlemen were chosen trustees: Wm Honeyman, I Lamberson, H J Corbett, Alfred S Frank, C J Smith and G L Withington. W J Honeyman was chosen treasurer. It was decided that the envelope system be discarded and that pews be rented hereafter.

UTILIZING OREGON FIR.—In the window of the Oregon furniture company is a mantel for the residence of Wm Kapus, secretary and treasurer of the company. The wood is plain ordinary every day Oregon fir and with the application of good colors and a fine polish is made as attractive as rosewood, for which some are liable to mistake it.

TO OAK ISLAND.—The Multnomah will leave the foot of Alder street at 8 A M to-morrow for Oak island carrying Taylor street M E Sunday school and friends. Plans are completed for a pleasant picnic and doubtless many will improve an opportunity to get out of town. The fare 50 and 25 cents is within the reach of almost every one.

WANT SALT AIR.—The early demand for tickets for the first seaside excursion on the Telephone to take place a week from Saturday indicates what a longing there is to escape from the present heat to the cool air of the sea beach. Over fifty persons called for tickets at Prentice's yesterday before they were printed.

IN PARTNERSHIP.—George W Knox the printer has retired from First street and entered into partnership with Dore at 1... Front street. They are both practical printers and can command a large trade. The firm will be known as Knox & Dore.

TO PENNSYLVANIANS.—Members who have not reported will please send their former county addresses to the secretary, Portland, Or.

WHY THEY DIDN'T PARADE

Some inquiries have been made as to why Company A, the Washington Guard, Oregon state militia, the oldest company in the city, did not parade on Memorial day, and the captain, Coroner H Cooke, has been somewhat embarrassed for a reply. The company was forbidden to parade because the regimental colonel did not want Company A to make a holy show of itself. There was battalion drill at the Pavilion on Wednesday of last week and a large number of spectators occupied the gallery. It was evident from their movements that the members of the Washington Guard had not attended drill often of late or else learned tactics very slowly or did not have a good instructor or came to the Pavilion to make fun. In the latter they were successful and the captain and his men were most unmercifully guyed by the small boy who was present in large numbers. Next day the following order was issued. It explains the unwonted absence:

HEADQUARTERS FIRST REGIMENT
SECOND BRIGADE O S M.
PORTLAND, Or, May 29 1886

[Special order No 13]

Capt. H Cook, Company A—Sir: You will not parade your company on Monday May 31 between the hours of noon and 6 P M. Its deficiency in drill and discipline renders this order not only necessary but imperative. This will doubtless meet the approval of your own better judgment. Respectfully
[Signed] J K PHILIPS,
Lieut. Col. Commanding Regiment.

BRIEF MENTION

Mrs M Baum will continue in business at 8 Morrison street.

No business was transacted yesterday in either of the state circuit courts.

License to wed was issued yesterday to Joseph Warner and Kattie Van Beurden.

Lawn party at Mrs Moffett's this evening by the young ladies of the Unitarian church.

A cool place of an evening is the Tivoli, and a fine variety performance is given nightly.

The democrats hold a meeting to-night at the court house plaza. Pennoyer and Butler will speak.

A baseball game will be played at the grammar school grounds at 3 o'clock to-morrow between the grammar school club and a picked nine.

Mr Robert Linden is down from the Coeur d'Alenes. He reports new and rich discoveries this summer and the mines generally booming.

A prominent W C T U worker from Ohio is to be the speaker at the prohibition meeting at the W C T U, which will be Saturday night instead of Friday as previously announced.

Old Mother Daly is circulating a petition for the pardon of her son Willie Daly who was sent to the penitentiary with Smallden and Evans for robbing old man Allard and committing other depredations. Willie is not a safe boy to trust among loose property belonging to others.

UNIVERSALIST STATE CONVENTION.

The annual session of this body has been postponed two weeks later than the usual time and will accordingly be held in Albany June 24, 25 and 27.

Arrangements have been made with the O & C R R Co by which persons coming to the convention over this road will be allowed a reduction of 50 per cent on return fare.

Rev G L Demarest, secretary of the Universalist general convention and an able speaker, will be present and assist in the exercises of the convention. By order of the executive committee.

BUSINESS MEN URGED TO ATTEND THE POLLS

PORTLAND June 3

It has been suggested that the business houses of the city should be closed during the election Monday. This is a good move. The election is an important one. Business men have large interests at stake and their presence at the polls will have a large tendency to prevent fraud, bribery and illegal voting. Turn out and show the people that the business men have an interest in fair and honest elections.
J

FERRY RATES.

The following comparison of ferry rates is submitted for information to the public. The comparison shows that the rates at Portland are no greater on the whole but average less, than the rates at the North and East river ferries, New York, or the rates at the bridges and ferries at Cincinnati, Newport and Kansas City. The commutation rates at Portland, moreover, are one-third less than those given in the table, and there is no doubt that ferry rates here are on the whole as cheap now as at other cities of the United States.

A Quick Recovery.

It gives us great pleasure to state that the merchant who was reported to be at the point of death from an attack of Pneumonia, has entirely recovered by the use of DR. WM HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. Naturally he feels grateful for the benefits derived from using this remedy for the lungs and throat, and in giving publicity to this statement we are actuated by motives of public benefaction trusting that others may be benefited in a similar manner.

Pastoral Residence Dedicated—Entertainment To-night—Company F's Election—Minor Notes and News

The new pastoral residence of Rev L Verhaag, pastor of St Francis church, corner of Tenth and ... streets, was the scene of a gay gathering last evening, between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock, the occasion being the blessing of the new structure, according to the usages of the Catholic faith. His grace Archbishop W H Gross delivered a brief but impressive address in the church and performed the beautiful dedicatory ceremony in the presence of a large number of hearers. After the religious exercises the guests were invited into the new residence, where a season of social ... that was highly enjoyed by all. St Michael's brass band discoursed several beautiful airs under the spreading trees that beautify the tastily arranged grounds. In the dining room a sumptuous repast of things material was spread for the delectation of the archbishop and the holy fathers present together with other invited guests. The main lower room of the new parochial school was also furnished with ample refreshments for all. Rev Father Verhaag proved himself to be a most royal entertainer and was prolific in his attentions to all. The visitors were not confined to the Catholic faith but embraced many prominent officials and citizens with their wives and families. The new parsonage is a model of neatness and elegance, is plainly but tastily furnished and arranged upon wise hygienic principles. The reverend father was the recipient of many expressions of good will at the hands of his numerous guests.

W C T U ENTERTAINMENT

The ladies of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of this city will give one of their interesting entertainments at the hall, corner Fifth and G streets, this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. The following programme has been prepared: Solo and chorus, "Rock of Ages"; prayer; recitation, Charlie Staver; recitation, Amy Gray; solo, Mrs Haines; recitation, Cora Crozier; recitation, Bertie Staver; solo with zither accompaniment, Anna Cosgrove; recitation, Maud McEwan; solo and chorus, "Prohibition Hat ... ANNUAL ELECTION

Company F, O S M, held their annual election at Armory hall last evening. Capt E H ... of Company K presided, having been specially detailed for that duty. Fifteen new recruits were mustered in and a jolly good time was had. Following are the officers elect: Captain M McMahon, first lieutenant D T McCartney, second lieutenant Hiram Smith. The growth of this company during the past few months has been remarkable and is a happy commentary on the energy of Capt McMahon, to whom most of the credit therefor is due.

CASE DISMISSED

The case of John Riner, accused of assault and battery upon the princely person of Winter Claw "Shakespeare," was called in the recorder's court at 10 A M yesterday. Defendant was present in person, accompanied by his attorney Col. S R Harrington, the prosecution being represented by W K Strode. Owing to the absence of the complaining and crippled "bard of Avon," the recorder dismissed the case and ordered the prisoner released from custody.

EXAMINATION IN PROGRESS

The regular annual examination in the public schools began yesterday. A noteworthy feature in connection therewith is the extraordinary attendance. Yesterday 820 scholars were present in the various grades, an increase of about 200 over last year. The examination will continue for one week, at the end of which time the promotions will be made and the graduating exercises of the High school will take place.

FINAL RALLY TO-NIGHT

The republicans will close the campaign on the east side this evening with a grand rally at Armory hall, corner Fourth and J streets. Able speakers will address the meeting, including Hon George L Woods, Hon John F Caples and others.

PUBLIC REVIEW EXERCISES

Miss Ames, teacher of one of the Odd Fellows' hall primaries, will give a public review of her pupils next Tuesday forenoon. The parents of the little ones are earnestly invited to be present and witness the exercises.

NOTES

Mrs W A Simpson is suffering from a severe attack of malarial fever.

No improvement is yet noticeable in the condition of Uncle David Powell.

The farmers in Powell's valley are busy gathering the first hay crop of the season.

Owing to the continued illness of Rev S P Wilson the sacrament of the Lord's supper will not be administered at the M E church on Sunday as had been announced.

Rev M ... and wife of Halsey who have been visiting with U S Marshal Kelly and John Shaver during the past week returned to their valley home yesterday.

The tipsy siwashes mentioned in yesterday's issue were permitted to depart from durance vile yesterday on condition that they leave the city. They accepted the proposition.

Rev Daniel Staver and wife, Frank and Maud Sommerville and Sadie Bogar returned yesterday morning from Forest Grove, where they have been in attendance at the commencement.

Mrs Lorenzo Winters of Powell's valley died early yesterday morning after a painful illness of many weeks. Her funeral will take place at 10 A M to-day from the Baptist church in Powell's valley.

Hogue's mill on Water street, which has been closed for the past three weeks on account of repairs to the foundation and a general overhauling of the machinery, commenced working again on Wednesday.

A special invitation is given to young members of the east Portland branch of the Y M C A to attend the young men's meeting at their hall to-morrow evening. Mr. Webber, the secretary, has something of considerable importance to say in regard to prospective work of the association.

Mr Ellis Walker, who has the contract for several bridges on the Willamette valley railroad, is in the city. He reports having received recent orders to change the plans of his bridges so as to conform them to the standard gauge pattern. He is now operating in the vicinity of Newberg.

REDUCTION OF FERRY RATES

EAST PORTLAND June 3 1886

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

I very much doubt if the proposed reduction in the rates of the Stark street ferry company asked for by the signers of the petition now up for consideration by the county commissioners is in the interest of public accommodation. The Stark street ferry company has always exhibited a liberal spirit in dealing with the people of the east side. Take the matter of commutation tickets for example: for $1 50 the company issues a ticket good for a month, which entitles the holder to pass back and forth as often as he may please, a courtesy not usually granted by ferry companies. If this petition shall be granted and the rate of 2 cents for foot passengers be established, the company will ... the full fare each trip. Thus a workingman who crosses twice every day will be compelled to pay $1 20 to the month, and the extra trips he will in all probability ... his monthly contribution considerably above the rate he now pays. During the many years of the existence of the Stark street ferry it has never refused a poor person without money passage in its boats. In fact the pursers have had instructions from the management never to turn away a worthy person who might ask for the favor of a free ride. The instructions have been equally ... orders, especially tramps. It is ... the policy of the company to ... all descriptions from entering East Portland by their line. I am of the opinion that the public interest will be best subserved by leaving the rates as they are at ... thus endorse a policy that has been liberal all along. A ... enforcement of exact schedule rates will undoubtedly increase rather than diminish the burden ... traveling public. CITIZEN

THE RIVERS

Following is the record of the stage of water in the Snake river at Riparia, the Columbia at Celilo and the Willamette at Portland for the week ending yesterday morning. The figures are feet and inches.

	Riparia.	Celilo.	Portland
May 28	13 11	16 1	15 1
May 29	13 7	17	16 1
May 30	13 1	1 ...	16
May 31	12 11	17 3	17 1
June 1	12 3	1 6	17 3
June 2	12 8	17 7	18 1
June 3	12 7	17 10	18 4

It will be seen that although Snake river has fallen sixteen inches, the Columbia below the mouth of the Snake has risen twenty-one inches and the Willamette more than three feet.

In the twenty-four hours ending at 10 o'clock yesterday morning the upper Columbia at Wallula Junction had risen five inches.

TELEGRAPHIC REPORT.

Riparia—River 12 feet 6 inches, falling slowly.
Celilo—River 18 feet 1 inch, rise of 3 inches since morning.
Umatilla—River ... feet, rise of 4 inches since morning.

It is believed that the warm weather of the past two days has melted enough snow to bring up the Snake again. The ... appearances indicate that the Columbia will hold ... from the Snake will bring down enough water to wet the upper wharves in Portland. A few more will tell.

Following is the temperature at noon at the ... points: ... Baker City ... Grande ... Umatilla ... Riparia ... Walla Walla ... Wallula ... Ainsworth ... Bonneville ... Dalles ...

The London "Times" on Blaine's Portland Speech.

BLAINE MAKES A CORRECTION

Gladstone Fixes Monday as the Date for Division on the Home Rule Measure—Yellow Fever at Panama—Etc

LONDON, June 3.—The Times, commenting on Blaine's Portland speech says: Blaine may or not catch the Irish vote by performances such as that of Tuesday's speech and so win the prize which, fully as much on personal as on public grounds, has been snatched from him once and again, but we refuse to believe that his ignorant and presumptuous rant presents the honest and independent opinion and reflection of America. It is peculiarly absurd that he should pose as an advocate of a plan which he supposes, quite wrongly of course, would place Ireland in the position of a state of the American union. He has been conspicuous, for the same reasons which now make him a flatterer of the Irish, in the bloody shirt campaigns against the Southern states. Should these now attempt to deprive negroes of suffrage he would be the first to favor a settlement of that local affair by armed interference of the central government. His history is almost on a par with his reasoning, which deserves to be classed with Sir William Vernon Harcourt's latest contribution of which one Lecky has something to say.

What Lecky has to say is contained in another column of the Times in the form of a letter. This is a criticism of Sir William's argument that the home rule measure prepared by Gladstone aimed at the simple revival of Grattan's Irish parliament. Lecky says the argument is absurd. Grattan's parliament, Lecky contends, placed the government of Ireland in the hands of Protestant generals who were bound to English connection by the closest ties of interest and sentiment. They were, adds Lecky, pre-eminently the representatives of property whose [illegible] Gladstone's steady object to destroy. The effect of his scheme would [illegible] the allies of both [illegible].

NEW YORK, June [illegible].—The Tribune says editorially [illegible] Blaine [illegible] with [illegible] native skill and elevation of tone. It is [illegible] the calmest, most reasonable and [illegible] American address on this subject that has been made since Parnell became leader of the Irish cause. It deserves to be widely read. [illegible] has an authoritative expression [illegible] American opinion. It is remarkable alike for its [illegible] of exposition and moderation of temper and at the same time is bold, incisive and original and contains passages of genuine eloquence as well as argumentative power. Blaine speaks not only as a sympathetic friend of the home rule cause, but as one of the wisest counsellors of the Irish people. His eloquent words are well timed. The crisis of the long struggle for home rule is approaching. In the storm and stress of the period which will follow the defeat of Gladstone's government Irishmen at home and in America will need all their resources of patience, moderation and self-control—the very qualities upon which Blaine assures them they must rely in order to achieve their well merited triumph.

A CORRECTION BY BLAINE.

AUGUSTA, Me., June 3.—The Kennebec Journal this morning publishes a letter from Blaine denying that in his recent speech in Portland he had applied the words "impudent, insolent and brutal" to Salisbury. Blaine writes: "I was referring to his lordship's declaration that the Irish might remain as they now are or emigrate, and I said interrogatively: 'Is not this an impudent proposition? Is it not insolent in its terms? Does it indeed stop short of being brutal in its cruelty?' It is not parliamentary to say that the statement is not true, but altogether parliamentary to say that its author is guilty of falsehood. The first describes the thing; the second assails the person. My characterization was aimed at the proposition and not at Lord Salisbury personally."

ENGLAND.

SPURGEON'S VIEWS.

LONDON, June 3.—One hundred nonconformist ministers of Derby and Nottingham have signed an address of confidence in Gladstone's Irish policy. Rev. Mr. Spurgeon, one of the signers, has written a second letter in which he asks if it is not possible for those desirous of the welfare of Ireland and the unity of the empire to devise a more acceptable scheme. "I cannot," says Spurgeon, "look forward with complacency upon the possibility of the Ulsterites being abandoned and of an established Irish Catholic church. Yet they are by no means the greatest evils we foresee in the near future should the suggested policy become a fact."

DIVISION SET FOR MONDAY.

LONDON, June 3.—In the commons this afternoon Hicks-Beach, conservative, pressed Gladstone to fix a date for division on the second reading of the home rule bill. Labouchere, radical, protested against the fixing of an early date, announcing that twenty-seven supporters of the measure desired to speak before the vote. Charles Bradlaugh, radical, supported Labouchere's protest. Gladstone fixed Monday as the date for division.

The debate on the home rule bill was resumed by Mr. O'Connor. He said he thought that he was justified in saying that the argument of separation had vanished from the minds of all reasonable politicians. [Cries of dissent.] He contended that there was no country in the world where history taught so eloquent a lesson against the establishment and endowments of religion as Ireland. He called attention to Mr. Bright's advice in his letter to the recent [illegible] and he did that members [illegible] against the [illegible] serious responsibility and would run a risk of not being returned.

Charles Lrad[illegible] supported the bill. He said that the objections [illegible] details of the measure if they vote for the second reading [illegible] have full opportunity to deal with this in committee. The choice lay between Gladstone and coercion.

SCULLING MATCH.

FERRY RATES

EAST PORTLAND, June 3, 1886.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The time for considering that petition asking for a reduction of rates upon the ferries is close at hand. Naturally those interested are working against any reduction, so we have found published in your columns for a number of days a table purporting to give for the information of the public "a comparison of rates." To be of value as information it should be more explicit. The average ferriage in a number of these cases is much less than reported. For instance the rates for foot passengers on the first two mentioned (East river) are but one cent during the limited hours of morning and evening, thus enabling toilers to live in one city and do business in the other at the trifling daily expense of two cents ferriage. Time was when our ferries were justified in their present rates, but after an institution has been paying for years enormous dividends, surely a long suffering public—toilers for their daily bread—should no longer be allowed to be baffled in their efforts either to secure the necessary accommodation of bridges or at least a reduction of ferry rates.

We have heard parties claiming that the tariff was not too high, but eventually admitting that they and their families or a portion of them were dead heads, and as such in honor bound to defend such rates.

Is it not a mistaken policy for ferry companies to fight even a bridge, unless it is a free one, as statistics have proven it to be in the case of the Brooklyn bridge? [illegible] to the interest of [illegible] carrier.

[illegible]

EAST PORTLAND, June [illegible].

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The [illegible] statement of ferry rates charged by different ferries in the East and published for the past few days in THE OREGONIAN [illegible] furnished and paid for by the Stark Street Ferry company, and is no doubt the most favorable showing they can make. Probably some person familiar with those Eastern ferries might show that the cost of operating them is very much greater and the distance traversed by them is [illegible] greater than is the case of the Stark street ferry. But what other ferries charge really has nothing to do with the question. The Stark street ferry is an absolute monopoly. No individual or corporation can put on a ferry in opposition to it, no matter how wealthy or influential they may be. The only limitation upon its [illegible] power of the county court to fix the rates of ferriage. Now if it can be shown from the amount of travel across said ferry that one half the rates now charged by the Stark street ferry will amply compensate said ferry company for the cost of operating it [illegible] they should be allowed to charge. [illegible] rights in this matter [illegible] the most important one is that they [illegible] cross the river as quickly [illegible] a fair compensation [illegible] ferry. The Stark [illegible] been regarded as the [illegible] state and it is [illegible] familiar with the [illegible] charged.

D.

OPEN LETTER

PORTLAND, June [illegible].

I had thought with my open letter [illegible] to close my appeal to the people at present [illegible] the overthrow of the intemperance that is working such sad havoc in our midst, but it seems that in self defense I must write again.

I have not, as every one knows, attempted to drag religion into politics. I did address a polite and respectful appeal to Irishmen asking them in the name of religion, public virtue and patriotism to come to my aid in fighting saloons and saloon keepers, because their business is having such fearful influence in ruining our youth, and increasing our taxation by the burden it imposes upon us of punishing and caring for its older and already ruined victims. Instead, however, of being received in the kind spirit in which it was intended, that letter appears to have stirred up quite a hornet's nest about my ears. First came Mr. Fitzsimmons in reply and in effect informed the public that he is an Irishman having as little regard for temperance, public morals and patriotism as for religion and that I need expect no support from him. And now, I exceedingly regret to say, comes Father Bronsgeest, claiming to speak for the Roman Catholic church, and apparently says that, as a priest in that church, he prefers the success of the whisky ring to that of the prohibition party and that I need expect nothing but opposition from his church. I still hope that this gentleman does not correctly voice the sentiment of his brethren in this respect. But as he claims to do so and ought to know better than I do whether or not he is correct, and as another minister of that denomination only a few weeks ago openly arrayed his church against our public school system, which most of us regard as the chief corner stone of our free institutions, I now appeal to all voters, who do not belong to either of those classes of my opponents, to consider seriously whether it is not time to decide at the ballot box the question whether or not they have and hold a fee simple title to the district attorney's office in this county, or whether it is possible to elect a man who owns no allegiance to any of them. What say you, fellow citizens?

E. C. BRONAUGH.

GREAT ACHIEVEMENTS.

The matchless and unparalleled [illegible] journalism continues to display itself in Portland. Still in the east it is fearfully and wonderfully made—[illegible] These from its efforts of Monday:

[illegible]

Portland News, May [illegible]	Oregonian, May [illegible]
WASHINGTON, May [illegible].—The [illegible]	WASHINGTON, May [illegible].—The president has vetoed [illegible] private pension [illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible] James C. [illegible] Chandler [illegible] the president gives his reasons at length in respect to each [illegible]
[illegible] of Branch [illegible] the president says [illegible]	In the case of Branch [illegible]

[illegible] The president holds his [illegible] Melcher's case [illegible] ground that he found nothing in his examination of the records [illegible] the surgeon's certificate [illegible] on which the attention of the pension bureau was directed [illegible]. Of the Ayres bill the president says it appears that the claimant served in his regiment two years and nearly eight months after his alleged injury, and until he was mustered out. It is represented to me by a report from the pension bureau that after his alleged wound in May or June 1863 the claimant deserted and in July of that year was arrested in the state of Indiana and returned to duty without trial. If this report is correct the party now seeking a pension at the hands of the government for disability incurred in the service claims to have been capable of considerable physical exertion though [illegible] after he claims to have received the injury [illegible] based.

In the last case [illegible] Chandler the president [illegible] his application [illegible] for a pension [illegible] still remaining in [illegible] to congress and probably there were [illegible] who had [illegible] congress [illegible] which procured a favorable result. The parties interested in the misfortune of this [illegible] of success is demonstrated by the bill now before me which directs, in opposition to the action of the pension bureau, that it grants a pension to a man who, though discharged from enlistment for certain alleged disability, made two applications for a pension based upon two distinct causes, both claimed to exist within two months prior to such discharge, and both different from the one upon which he accepted the same, and notwithstanding the fact that the proposed beneficiary after all these disabilities had occurred passed an examination as to his physical fitness for re-enlistment, actually did re-enlist and served till finally mustered out at the close of the war. If any money is to be given to this man from the public treasury it should not be done under the guise of a pension.

Our readers will be understood that this [illegible] was not taken from THE OREGONIAN but from eastern papers received by mail that published it simultaneously with THE OREGONIAN. In [illegible] matter [illegible] from eastern papers and [illegible] It [illegible] any day to reproduce from its [illegible] so much of this as is presented [illegible] specimen [illegible] that [illegible] men who profess to be journalists never [illegible] stand [illegible] probably not until there are [illegible] journals as well as [illegible] in [illegible] their honorable profession.

PENNOYER AND CORNELIUS

[illegible] June [illegible].

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

A [illegible] word in reply to the dignified [illegible] Pennoyer in this morning's OREGONIAN. That gentleman [illegible] quoting from the [illegible] would have shown just as [illegible] had he quoted the whole instead of a part [illegible].

The [illegible] of the [illegible] treaty. After [illegible] of such treaty, the record proceeds:

WHEREAS, The concessions made to Chinese subjects by [illegible] articles are inimical [illegible] the people of the state of Oregon [illegible] adversely of her constitution and [illegible] of the people of this state [illegible] the legislative assembly thereof should have and exercise the authority to regulate [illegible] not qualified to become citizens of the United States or of this state.

Let the readers of THE OREGONIAN judge whether this resolution [illegible] the right or power of the Federal government to pass such a treaty.

Mr. Pennoyer takes time to reply to some portions of the speech of Col. Cornelius. [illegible] take time to answer the question asked in it concerning him. That some senate asserted in effect that the 15th amendment to the constitution of the United States was void and resolved that the said 15th amendment be and the same is hereby rejected. In reference to the resolution Col. Cornelius asked: "Did Mr. Pennoyer approve of it then? Does he now? Did he defend or oppose it then? Will he defend it now?" Did Mr. Pennoyer overlook these questions?

FREIGHTS—The Alliance came in Friday with prior charter understood to be for salmon. The Coloma, regular Hong Kong trader, also arrived. The Dryad passed to sea with a wheat cargo. A number of vessels are added to the en route list, indicating that some business has been done in fall arrival. None of this, however, is very recent, for the past two weeks brokers were idle. For fall loading a large iron [illegible] accepted 40s U. K. or continent, nothing less direct. Fair sized iron usually secured 43s 6d usual terms. On spot the Barunga has been closed to [illegible] & Co. Several of the loading fleet will be ready for sea within the coming week. As no new spot business is reported the list is being reduced.

DISENGAGED TONNAGE STATEMENT.

WHEAT—Receipts for the week were 1114 tons valley and [illegible] tons Walla Walla, a total of [illegible] tons, a decrease of [illegible] tons over the preceding week. For a similar period last year receipts were [illegible] tons valley and 610 tons Walla Walla. Receipts for the past week have been for old purchases, as the amount of new business has been small. The grain [illegible] with a desire on the part of sellers to get all possible has in many [illegible] Foreign markets have declined [illegible] the [illegible] Mail dates from England speak of a firm market with every [illegible] maintained. The arrivals [illegible] ships and [illegible] market [illegible] given by cable [illegible] that mail advices will be soon reading at this time. Chicago and New York have ruled easy the [illegible] American [illegible] a week of [illegible] San Francisco [illegible] a dull but lifeless market. California [illegible] every promise of a large crop of wheat and barley. Between new and harvest there is little room for serious damage to the crop. Altogether the market, which we look to as controlling, has prices in a very unsatisfactory state and buyers are discouraged. In the past week they dropped bids sharply and at the close [illegible] within their ideas. Walla Walla sell [illegible] on board, or but little better than $1 10 on wharf. These figures are now full [illegible] and the market will doubtless settle at $1 10 for a time. Receipt of this grade [illegible] and it is thought sellers will accept bids in order to close out before the new crop comes in. If business is to be done it is certain that buyers' views must be met, as the shipping trade will not justify beyond $1 [illegible] on board now. In the valley grade less trade results from the lower bids. Millers claim to have about enough wheat or flour on hand for the balance of this season so that they will buy very little from this on. At the close $1 [illegible] are actual bids and the best offered. No sales have yet been reported at this, but a contrast of the market fails to develop higher offers and the figures must be given as quotations. The loading fleet promises to be steadily small and to be wholly without influence upon prices. As to the immediate future of the market there is not the least hopeful sign. Freights cannot be expected to go lower and wheat must alone bear the weakness now ruling abroad. Chicago and New York have improved rapidly since noon yesterday, but it is difficult to see anything substantial in these advances. Local speculation appears to be the only cause for the changes.

OATS—The weaker advices have had a telling effect and sales at anything over 40c are impossible. Dealers are now being loaded up at 39@40c in anticipation of a lower range. Shippers have not gone beyond [illegible] the quotation being [illegible]. San Francisco dealers are writing against sending very [illegible] stocks are about all that will be required before new comes in, and that California is to have a more than usual crop. Lower values appear to be quite certain in the near future.

POTATOES—Demands have been quite fully supplied all week and light shipments are [illegible] San Francisco. Dealers paid 50@60c per [illegible] for best old. California selling at 1½c.

ONIONS—Cheaper under larger and lower priced supplies. California selling at 1½c.

TROPICAL FRUITS—Oranges in only fair supply, coming in ruling freer. The range is now $3 [illegible]. Lemons firm at $5 50 for Sicily and $3 50 for California. Bananas $3 50@4.

FRUITS, ETC.—Cherries have sold cheaper, last consignment going at $1 per 10 lb box. Local will soon be in market. No apples at hand. The supply of strawberries is increased from day to day, prices at the close being about 6@8c.

VEGETABLES, ETC.—Selling prices are: Cauliflower $1 [illegible], lettuce 20c, artichokes 25c per dozen, cabbage $3 [illegible] per 100, asparagus $ [illegible], peas $1 50 per [illegible], turnips $1 [illegible], beets $2 [illegible], carrots $1 [illegible] per sack, beans [illegible].

EGGS—Warm days have compelled a quick movement so that the market has continued weak, although receipts have not been large. [illegible] Sales were made at less [illegible] in the week.

BUTTER—Large stocks of common to good at hand, prices being easy. Good to choice is freely [illegible] at 17½@20c. Lower grades dull at [illegible]. Receipts throughout are heavy.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Governments were dull and steady. Stocks opened rather heavy, generally at [illegible] decline. Pacific Mail was off [illegible] and [illegible] Nashville [illegible] per cent. There was a limited business only, accompanied by considerable dullness. The market then rallied and became [illegible] in the neighborhood of the opening prices. Later, however, there was a free selling [illegible] and prices were carried down rapidly after 1 P. M., generally reaching the lowest for the day before [illegible] P. M. In the last hour it became strong throughout, generally supposed to be in consequence of support of bulls, and it closed strong, generally at small reactions below the best figure.

The Mail and Express says: Mining shares were strong but dull. Sales: Sutro Tunnel 11, Belle Isle 25, Colorado 40, Amie 4 65, American Flag 6, Bulwer 1 50, California & Virginia 1 45@1 50, Hale & Norcross 2, Savage 85.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In order to correct a misunderstanding that prevails, will you kindly state that the Grace M. E. church people had exclusive arrangements for the first Olympian excursion of this season to Ilwaco, but that an agreement has since been reached whereby they waive that right, and [illegible] Company [illegible] will give its excursion on Saturday, June [illegible], to the Grace church people on Saturday, June [illegible].

JOHN J. BARNI[illegible].

Best Goods are Put in Smallest Parcels.

The old proverb is certainly true in the case of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, which are little, sugar-wrapped parcels scarcely larger than mustard seeds, containing as much cathartic power as is done up in the biggest, most repulsive-looking pill. Unlike the big pills, however, they are mild and pleasant in their operation; do not produce griping pains nor render the bowels costive after using.
